

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

JUNE 2023 £5.99

1. ALINA ANON is an award-winning artist based in the United States whose paintings have been exhibited nationally and internationally. Alina's art encourages others to take steps to realise their dreams, while empowering women and celebrating diversity. She primarily creates with acrylics on canvas. Visit www.alinaanon.com and follow @alina.anon_art on Instagram.

2. CHARLOTTE-AIMEE is a New Zealand artist, based in Australia. Her practice encompasses abstraction and figuration of everyday places and people as well as captivating landscapes filled with light and shadow. Charlotte-Aimee's perceptive and nostalgic works are truly captivating. Visit www.charlotteaimee.com and follow @charlotteaimeeart on Instagram.

3. SARAH CASWELL is a UK artist who paints sunny, upscale floral portraits in a 'contemporary baroque' style. Bold compositions are tempered with a romance and sensitivity. A Fellow of the Society of Botanical Artists, Sarah has exhibited at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show in London since 2011. Pictured is 'That Day You Were Perfect' 100cm x 200cm. Visit www.sarahcaswell.co.uk and follow @sarahcaswellpaintings on Instagram.

4. CHRISTINE GOERNER is an Australian photographic artist. Design elements of texture, pattern and line feature strongly in her art, resulting in abstract compositions and dreamscapes that become a tribute to nature. Her award winning work is held in collections in Australia, Europe and the US. Visit www.christinegoernerphotography.com or email enquiry@christinegoerner.com

5. LARINE CECILIE IVERSEN is a self taught artist based in Copenhagen, Denmark. She creates floral pieces in watercolours and oil pastel and takes inspiration from modern art, fashion, botanicals, and finding nuances in aspects of colours, lights, inner feelings and thoughts. Her works are intuitive and expressive, focusing on contrasting, vibrant colours, and organic shapes. Visit www.lapoire.art or follow @lapoire_imaginaire on Instagram.

6. CATIA GOFFINET is a Brazilian artist who develops geometric art, totally abstract and linked to science and themes such as the universe. Paint is layered to create the idea of movement and depth and draw in the eye. Follow @goffinetart on Instagram or email goffinetcatia@gmail.com Pictured is 'Two Sides 9', acrylic on canvas, 77cm x 150cm.

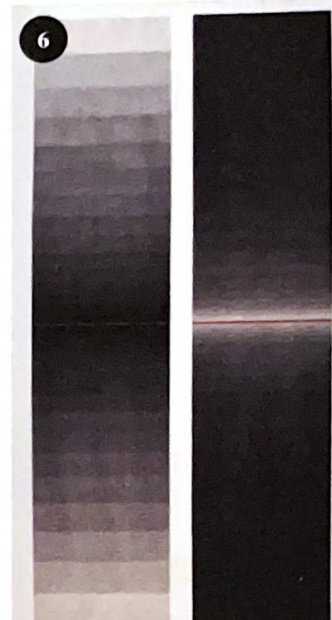

7. KATIE-MAI QUINN is a contemporary wildlife artist from the Cotswolds and currently based in Colorado. She uses abstract and representational techniques to connect subject and background to demonstrate the interconnectedness of the world around us. Explore more at www.katie-mai.com and follow @madeby_katiemai on Instagram.

8. IRYNA BARSUK is a Ukrainian contemporary artist. She uses abstract forms to tell stories about mental health issues from living through the war in her home country. She believes art is the way to peace. Picture is 'Love or hate', 135cm x 90cm. Email barsukiryna@gmail.com and follow @iryna.barsuk on Instagram.

9. MICHAEL SWEET is inspired by a phenomenal vision of scintillating particles. His pointillist paintings are bursts of colour in mesmerising compositions. Michael expresses his vision in dots, alluding to the infinite particles that make up the universe. Visit michaelsweetart.com and follow @michaelsweetart on Instagram.

10. ALICE ALESSANDRIA, is an Italian-based contemporary artist. She creates unique and powerful abstract artworks, inspired by the beauty of feminine forms. The study of female beauty, pure lines and the perception of simple figures in space are the core themes in her works. She's a self-taught artist that specialises in manual printing, lithography and linocut. Pictured is 'People' 30cm x 42cm. Visit www.ArtAddictedDotCom.com and follow @artaddicteddotcom on Instagram.

11. LADY KELSIE MOORE is an American fine arts painter, currently travelling the world. Her emotive brushstrokes and intriguing colour palette reveal a romantic, elegant story of nature and inspired wonderment. She paints what she's feeling and this is why her work varies between Impressionism and Abstract. Email her at kelsie.moore.pro@gmail.com

1. ALINA ANON is an award-winning artist based in the United States whose paintings have been exhibited nationally and internationally. Alina's art encourages others to take steps to realise their dreams, while empowering women and celebrating diversity. She primarily creates with acrylics on canvas. Visit follow @alina.anon_art

based in Australia. Her

6. CATIA GOFFINET is a Brazilian artist who develops geometric art, totally abstract and linked to science and themes such as the universe. Paint is layered to create the idea of movement and depth and draw in the eye. Follow @goffinetart on Instagram or email goffinetcatia@gmail.com Pictured is 'Two Sides 9', acrylic on canvas, 77cm x 150cm.

7. KATIE-MAI QUINN is a contemporary wildlife artist from the Cotswolds and currently based in Colorado. She uses abstract and representational techniques to connect subject and background to demonstrate the interconnectedness of the world around us. Explore more at www.katie-mai.com and follow @madeby_katiemai on Instagram.

